Manny Castro- Interventionist Specialist for Turning the Hearts

- Grew up in gangs
- Was addicted to drugs/alcohol
- Came to Turning the Hearts because he had to do 30 hours of community service
- After completing his 30 hours of community service, he began to volunteer, then he became a staff member, and later began creating programs
- GAME- Gang Awareness through Mentoring Education
 - Established in June 2007
 - Began because there was a need in the community
 - Second Chance helped in starting the program
 - 16 week program, which meets twice a week
 - Youth involved in the program have to follow a strict dress code (slacks and collar shirt)
 - Everyone who works in program is an ex-gang member
 - Expanded to North County (Escondido) and partnered with FIT (Family Intervention Office), San Diego County Office of Education, and Escondido Police Department
- Gang Parenting
 - Educates parents on gang structure and culture
 - Provides families with support

Dante Dauz- Program Supervisor for ACE (Alliance for Community Empowerment)

- Grew up making wrong decisions, which caused him to be on probation
- Has spent 15-20 years of his life working with the community
- ACE is the newest prevention and early intervention program in San Diego
- ACE is a comprehensive approach to not only helping the at-risk youth, but the entire family
- ACE is a partnership of agencies
 - UPAC (Union of Pan Asian Communities)
 - Overcoming Gangs and Beyond
 - Jackie Robinson YMCA
 - Power Mentor
- ACE has two basic components
 - Mobile Response Team

- ❖ When there are acts of violence in the community anywhere from homicide to bullying, ACE sends a team of individuals to assess situation and see what services and/or referrals to provide victim and their families
- ❖ In the Southeast area, services provided by Jackie Robinson YMCA
- ❖ In the City Heights and Mid-City area, services provided by Power Mentor and UPAC
- Direct Programs
 - ❖ Leadership Academy
 - Facilitated by Overcoming Gangs and Beyond
 - Focus is on 12-17 yr. olds
 - Promotes community esteem, self-esteem, academics, anti-violence, drug awareness, family respect, and communication
 - ❖ Empowerment Courses for parents and teens
 - Educates parents on what behavior and signs to look for in their child and teaches them coping techniques if their child is involved in gangs and/or other negative activity
 - Also teaches parents how to build a relationship with their child
 - ❖ Strengthening Families
 - Focus is on 10-14 yr. olds
 - Parent/child interactive courses
 - Seven week courses; two hour classes
 - First hour child and parent are separated into different rooms
 - Second hour both parent and child are brought back together and go over communication techniques they learned in previous hour
 - ❖ Grief Support Group
 - Families affected by violence
 - Meet weekly

Danny Gutierrez- Director of F.O.C.I.S. (Family Outreach Community Intervention Services) & Project Coordinator for the Jacob's Center Project Safe Way

- ✚ Started his work in the community by volunteer work through New Harvest Christian Fellowship
- ✚ F.O.C.I.S.
 - Secular program
 - Four week program

- Based at New Harvest Christian Fellowship
 - Program is taught through the Success for Teens Handbook
 - Eight chapter handbook; cover two chapters a week
 - Girls and boys are taught separately
 - Offers the state award winning Parents Project, which specializes in parents dealing with out of control adolescents
 - On Friday nights, F.O.C.I.S., San Diego Police Department, and High School Police conduct curfew sweeps
-  Curfew sweeps are a collaborative effort between:
- ACE
 - San Diego Police Department
 - Unified School Police
 - Jackie Robinson YMCA
 - SAY San Diego
 - ICY (Inner City Youth of San Diego)
 - Harmonium
 - Palavra Tree
-  The children who are picked up during the curfew sweeps are given the chance to participate in F.O.C.I.S., which keeps them from being institutionalized
-  Jacob's Center- Project Safe Way
- Stand on street corners in the Southeast community and monitor children on their way to and from school
 - In the last two years where Project Safe Way, F.O.C.I.S., and ACE have collaborated, the crime rate has dropped more than 87%
 - Last summer was the first summer in nine years that Southeast did not experience a single juvenile homicide
 - Project Safe Way also conducts Living Room Meetings
 - ❖ Involves bringing 9 to 10 community members and asking them what issues/concerns they have
 - ❖ One of the big issues they had was the communities relationship with the Police Department,
 - ❖ Through this discussion the community and the Police Department created Safe Talk
 - ❖ Safe Talk develops a positive relationship between our community and the San Diego Police Department

Hector Meza- County of Education

-  Hector was involved in gangs early on in his life due to his family's involvement
-  Hector does don't care about statistics, but solutions
-  Need to encourage parents to be involved in their child's life
-  Hector works within the 42 school districts in the county to provide Spanish gang awareness and presentations

- Hector is involved in many programs
 - 1. PASS(Promoting Achievement in Student Success)
 - ❖ Identifies students who are at risk of being involved in gangs, drugs, and/or negative behavior
 - ❖ Case load is comprised of 30 students
 - ❖ Hector calls the parents of the 30 students and has them come to the school their child attends to talk with them
 - 2. Familia Con Valores (Family With Values)
 - ❖ Teaches values, such as love, compassion, respect, dignity, etc.)
 - 3. LOVE (Leaning On Visions & Education)
 - ❖ Taught in the Chula Vista Elementary School District
 - ❖ Instills in children visions, goals, and education, so that they can become functional members of their own lives
